The James T F Chong Memorial Scholarship was established in 2007 and is available for award to a first year student in personal and/or financial hardship, who is commencing their first year of study within the School of Law at Murdoch University. One scholarship to the value of $1,000 is available and payable as a lump sum to a nominated bank account of the scholarship holder.

The scholarship shall be awarded by the University on the advice of the donor.

Eligibility

To be eligible to apply for the James T F Chong Memorial Scholarship, students should:

- Be prepared to commence full-time studies in the first year of study within the School of Law in Semester One 2010;
- Have received a TER of 90 or above in 2008 OR 2009;
- Be able to demonstrate a measure of commitment and initiative in their academic or personal life;
- Attach written reference(s) from one and no more than two persons qualified to comment on the applicant's academic studies, and/or a past or current employer;
- Provide a personal statement of no more than one A4 page demonstrating why the applicant should be the successful candidate, including how the scholarship will enable the achievement of personal goals, academic success and planned career pathway;
- Outline any circumstances of personal and/or financial hardship.
- Be an Australian Citizen or Permanent Resident.

Selection Criteria

The following will be taken into consideration by the Selection Panel:

- Evidence of high achievement in previous study or professional work;
- Reference(s) from persons suitable to comment;
- Personal statement.

Special consideration will be made for demonstrated economic need.

Please Note

Students will be notified as to the outcome of their application in January 2010.

The outcome of the application will be advised by email. No further correspondence will be entered into concerning the outcome.

The University reserves the right not to award the scholarship if no applicant is considered suitable.
